Tour Highlights:

- Enjoy a guided introduction to the City, feel its vibe as you drive past the iconic attractions and cultural monuments.
- The Doha City Tour introduces you to the most prominent highlights of the city, the ones you should not miss while visiting Doha.

- A quick photo stop at the Museum of Islamic Art
- A short walking tour of Souq Waqif, a traditional Bedouin market place, will take you through a maze of alleyways, immersed in Qatari culture, architecture and history.
- Pass by the waterfront promenade that runs the entire length of Doha Bay. You’ll enjoy great vistas of the city and its incredible skyline in West bay, and back towards the iconic Museum of Islamic Art. Traditional wooden dhows line the Bay, echoing Qatar’s seafaring past. The Corniche provides a green, vehicle-free pedestrian space in the heart of the capital with cafes, restaurants, outdoor exercise facilities and a running track.
- Proceed to Katara Cultural Village, where the idea was to immerse people from different cultural backgrounds to promote connections across humanity. This striking collection of buildings features interactive learning of the rich culture and history of Qatar.
- Next, head off to The Pearl, the iconic manmade island spanning across four million square miles of land. An impressive blend of residential, business and retail facilities on a beautifully landscaped island.

- This tour is on seat-in-coach basis
